Dr. Burleigh
Bath, Ontario, Canada

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

Today I received a letter from Mr. Elliott Mc Knight of Hamilton, Ont. telling me of the background of the Godfrey family. As a genealogist tracing our family tree, I was thrilled to have a guess confirmed that Warren Godfrey was father to my Great Grand father, Coleman Godfrey of Olden tnshp in 1871.

Mr. Mc Knight spelled the family as Hinckley, and Kinckley. Since one of David Eustus' sons was Levi Kinckley, I believe the later is right. Moreover he said you had a book telling of the family history the name of which I would very much appreciate. I'll hold my breath hoping I can find a copy!

I'm new at this genealogy study. After a habit of thirty years working, my husband thought I should have time to do things I would enjoy...besides, he's enjoying supporting me. Anyway, a third cousin (I think, her great grandmother and mine were sisters, Coleman's daughters Emmaline and Sarah Minerva, and they married brothers, David and James Finnin Eustus, sons of Levi G. Eustus.) as I started to say, June Shupe, my cousin has been doing this for 20 years, and we are working together now, and things are really falling into place. Perhaps it's my business training that helps the follow through, or spirit helping from beyond, or whatever....things are hapening. For which I thank God...and those he sends our way to help.

Sometimes it's difficult working from such a distance, but it's thrilling to read a census film and find family, and people who could be family, and later confirm facts with proof.

Census films take 3 to 6 weeks to come. Books are slow, but the library's an inexpensive way to search, and rewarding. Fits my means.

I really hesitate to impose on you for this information, but as a historian, I'm sure you will understand my enthusiasm. Any spare facts will be gratefully absorbed.

Respectfully,

Ellen Hokanson

Dear Herbert:

My apologies for being so tardy in returning the booklet. But so many visiting relatives, who are descendants of Samuel Hinckley, showed such interest that I kept trotting it out for their inspection. Lulu's son, Wendell Watson lived for a year in Kent where the 1st Samuel was born, and knows Tenderden quite well.

Pammy and I are going to Verona very soon now and we are hoping to see you folks during the summer.

Thanks for lending me the booklet.

P. S. Pammy sends her best.

Dear Doctor,

I am, still, working on the genealogy of the McKnight family. They were John McKnight and Mary Ann O'Sullivan McKnight who lived in Kingston 1854 to 1867 and then migrated to Watertown, N.Y., U.S.A.

You were very helpful with the information you gave in your letter of 5th May, 1972 and in it you offered to look into the census records by contacting a man living near Ottawa to do this. I wish you would follow this procedure and advise me of the costs.

I would like to obtain more detailed information about the McKnight family, such as the name of the ship they arrived on, the name of the port, the exact date of arrival and such other information that might be obtained by consulting the passenger list of said ship. There must have been a McKnight that came on the same ship and to the same port. Can this information be obtained from the Dominion Public Archives in Ottawa?

Thanking you for your patience in this project
I am,

very sincerely yours,

Frank S. Bull.

Dear Herb:

It was thoughtful of you to send the information regarding Thomas McNight. A far-removed cousin of mine who lived all her life near Prescott, and whose grandfather was a brother - a much younger brother - of my great grandfather, gave me much of the material that I have accumulated regarding the McKnights.

This ancestor of mine was a soldier in the Imperial Army, was reported to have fought in The Napoleonic War, came to Canada very early in the 19th century, recd. his discharge in Kingston and was offered 200 acres of land in Prince Ed. County. He said, "To Hell with it, I'll work at my trade!" He was reported to have worked on many of the limestone buildings in Kingston and when The Battle of the Fenian Raid took place was working on the fort at Prescott. There is an Orange Lodge certificate from County Tyrone, dated 1814, which shows that he was still in Ireland at that date. By the way it was a regiment certificate which shows that he was still in the army in 1814. Thomas McNight must have been an earlier offshoot of the family, although there were McKnights in Scotland as we read the name on a tombstone in the cemetery where Bobby Burns is buried.

I have passed on the information regarding the Hinckleys to several of my cousins; thanks for giving me that account.

Some day soon we are going back to winter quarters but not so long as the weather remains this perfect. We are still enjoying our book.

Good health to you and yours,

Ellen McK.

Dear Dr. Barclay,

Thanks a lot for your letter of April 10th together with form which I have filled out and find it attached to this letter.

The information on my paternal grandfather and grandmother was obtained from a certified copy of an entry of marriage received from the General Register Office, Somerset House, London.

My maternal Grandfather and grandmother were married in Ireland and had two children in that country. I have a death certificate for the oldest, Daniel McKnight who died in Binghamton, N.Y. March 12, 1915. His date of birth is listed on the certificate of death as May 24, 1849. The second child born in Ireland was ~~Anna~~ Elizabeth McKnight
b. Feb. 17, 1852 and d. Feb 5, 1908 in Syracuse, N.Y.

The children born in Kingston, Ontario, Canada are as follows;

① John McKnight, baptised June 25 1854

Dear Cousins:

Do not let that term shock you, meaning Elliott, of course. Your reply has all but proven the relationship, though somewhat remote. This will come to the fore as I proceed to comment on your 'Pedigree Form' which you enclosed in your letter. The following are my comments:

1. According to the Atlas of Frontenac County, 1876, John Mc Knight settled in Canada in 1831. This is possibly the year of emigration from Ireland. Incidentally, I have a book, 'Scottish Clans and Tartans,' which states that the McKnights belong to the McKnighten Clan.

2. The Godfreys and Winkleys evidently were first recorded in Stephentown Town(ship), Albany County, New York, according to the census of 1791.

Godfrey, John, 3 adult males, 0 males under 16, 2 females.

" Rob't 4 do 3 do 1 do

" Benj. 1 do 2 do 3 do

Winkley, Saml. 3 do 6 do 2 do

" Paul 1 do 3 do 3 do

Directory of 1865 lists these Winkleys--Coleman, Sr. and Jr., Delos and Dexter, on Wolf Island.

In Olden Township were Godfreys--Warner, Jr., Warner A., and B.

3. Walker-Davy.

The marriage register of Rev. Robert McDowall, 1793-1835, Presbyterian of Bath, lists two marriages on 17 Dec., 1822. Strangely enough they were two Walker men:

John Walker and Eve (Mife) Davy, both of Amestown.

Hudson Walker and Susannah Ball, do do

In addition, Eve Davy (in the Davy file) is called daughter of Peter Davy, U. S., and granddaughter of Peter Davy, Sr, U. S.

The above poses one question. Are John Walker and Eve Davy the parents of your John Davy Walker? If this can be proven, then you are entitled to place W. S. after your name.

There were two, or more, John Walkers belonging to this period. They are best shown, as follows:

Daniel Walker, Sr., born 1736, married Mary Young. He came to Amestown in 1794, as a Loyalist. He had sons:

1. Weeden, who married Sarah ----- Their children include

a. John Walker of Amestown. Drow 268 acres 7 May, 1811

b. John Walker do do do 27 Mar., 1829.

(Query: were these the same persons?)

c. Daniel, the grandfather of Harriet Howe Percy.

2. William, the father of

a. Hudson Walker, who married Susannah Ball. He was a veteran of the War of 1812, and died in the Verona area about 1877.

3. Daniel, Jr., who had a son

a. John Walker, who drew 268 acres as Loyalist on 6 Aug., 1833.

4. McKeever, McIver, belonged to the Campbell Clan.

Evidently, further search should be made regarding the Walker-Davy ancestry. I can offer the following suggestions, seeing that you are now retired, with time on your hands.

1. Complete the enclosed form as far as possible, in particular, listing the children of ----- Walker and Eve Davy. Naturally, there will be many unanswered spaces. But one should remember that any bit of knowledge, no matter how insignificant, may be a vital clue.
2. Visit the County Registry Office, Kingston, looking for copies of wills. Look into the land transfers of certain lots in "Inchbrook and Bedford. These will show how land passed from one generation to another. Wills not involving transfers of land will be found in the Surrogate office in the County Court House.
3. Spend several days in Ottawa at the Public Archives. There will be found census records of 1851, 1861 and 1871. If you should do this, copy all Walker references in these townships:
Ottawa for 1851
Carleton for 1851 and 1861
Portland for 1851, 1861 and 1871.
Inchbrook for ditto
Bedford for ditto.

I am sure that all this will be both informative, as well as edifying and intensely interesting.

For Pansy I have this intriguing problem, for what it is worth.

John Percy, U. S., our common great, great grandfather, was (according to military records) born in Ireland in 1753. He came unmarried to the American Colonies, and in 1777-8 he spent short periods of service in the American (rebel) army. In 1781, he joined Jessup's Rangers of the Loyal Forces. (My grandfather, Joseph L. Percy, stated that his grandfather, John Percy, was born in County Wicklow, Ireland.) This John Percy, U. S., was unmarried in May, 1774, but by October of the same year he is shown as resident in Amstottown Township with a wife and two children under ten (These were Catherine and James Costello, his step-children). By the year 1773, he had fathered three children, Rebecca, John, Jr., and Anne. Our great, grandfather, Michael Ryan Percy, was born in 1755. A tradition in our family was that he was born in Quebec just a few hours after landing from the Old Country. If this was so, why had John and family returned to Ireland-- a death in the family? Property to be settled? Or just a sentimental visit? Or did this tale actually belong to the birth of James Costello, John Percy's step-son? I have a copy of this James' baptism which took place in Notre Dame de Quebec in 7 Aug., 1775.

There! I've said enough for one day. Very Best Regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Friend or Relative:

Herewith are three generations of my family.

7 I am trying to compile a record of the _____ family. I am searching for information on the ancestors and descendants of _____ born _____
7 at _____, who married _____

I note that you are interested in families bearing this same surname.
I shall appreciate any assistance, which you may be able to offer me, or any suggestions as to a source of information which will help me in following out this line of my family tree.

I am compiling this material for the love and appreciation I have for the family to which I belong.

Please write your pedigree on the reverse side of this sheet, and return to me at once. I shall be glad to share with you any records which I may have.

Thank you for your help and co-operation.

Dear Dr. Burlingh,

I wrote to the Kingston Public Library about my grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. John M^c Knight who lived in that city during the years, 1854 to 1867, and they could not ^{find} any information in their directories.
They, kindly, referred me to you.

The reason I know the years they were there is the fact that I received baptismal certificates for their eight children from St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston.

Last week I received a letter from one of my cousins stating that they lived with an Knight family while there. I did not know this before.

I am in the midst of the family research and would appreciate any cooperation you could give me. Please advise me of your fee for same and I will advance it.

Very truly yours, Frank S. Duce.

Dear Mr. Bull:

With reference to your letter of March 14, regarding your grandparents, I am afraid our records are not complete enough to answer your questions. Our earliest directories are 1856 and the name McKnight is not mentioned. There is a local historian, however, who might be able to give you more information:

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
BATH, Ontario.

I believe he charges for his services. I hope he is more successful than we were.

Yours very truly,

Dear Herbert:

We were very pleased to get your letter with the enclosed form, which I have filled out to the best of my ability. But I am afraid there are many blanks.

The only claim that I have to U.K. ancestry is through my Grandfather Walker's mother whose maiden name was Davy or Havey. But I have no knowledge of her Christian name, merely that she lived near Camden East.

My Great Grandfather Godfrey was born in the U.S.A. but his older brothers fought for the Yankees against the British -bloody rebels.

We tried to trace the McKnights while we were in Ireland last summer as I had a copy of my Great grandfather's Orange certificate, but it turned out he belonged to a regimental branch of the order and that branch was just a temporary one, long since discontinued and forgotten. The certificate was dated 12 July, 1814.

Pansy visited Alnwick Castle again and again noted the portrait of the 9th Duke of Northumberland - Henry George Alan Percy - and in his 1st World War uniform bears a remarkable resemblance to you.

Our best regards to you and your family.
